

Beware of fake and spoofed emails

It has recently been discovered that fake and spoofed emails are being sent to the general public in Canada in the name of TSUDAKOMA Corp.

The emails look like headhunting offers presenting highly paid salaries and commissions, asking recipients to reply to the sender.

According to recent reports, the spoofed emails are being sent from the following email addresses:

postmaster@liebman-associates.com

satonishiino@gmail.com

TSUDAKOMA has never sent emails offering compensation and commissions for job recruitment and asking users to reply.

If you receive such an email, please ignore it. Never open any attached files or click on any HTML links therein.

For your reference, the following cases are the spoofed emails that have come to our attention:

-Case 1-

“January 6, 2021,

Happy New Year to you. We are looking for great people with your skill set. After viewing your profile, our company was so Impressed with your background. There is this New Potential Role (Tsudakoma Corporation) is offering in Canada and I think you will be interested in it. To know more about the job description, role and compensation, kindly indicate your interest.

Note: The Position will only take a few minutes of your time while you earn extra income doing your normal Business/Job.

Best Regards,

Satoshi Nishino

Executive Officer

Head of Group Customer Solution

Tsudakoma Corporation

18-18 Nomachi 5-chome,

Kanazawa, 921-8650, Japan”

-Case 2-

“Top of the day to you. We are currently seeking a Reputable Company/individual to act as our company representative, kindly revert to me for proper discussion if interested.

Looking forward to your email.

Best Regards,

Satoshi Nishino

Executive Officer

Head of Group Customer Solution

Tsudakoma Corporation

18-18 Nomachi 5-chome,

Kanazawa, 921-8650, Japan”